—IN THE—

Catholic Knights of America

This is the safest and cheapest insurance society in the United States, and has a special reserve fund of nearly $800,000. Every Catholic man should protect his wife and children by carrying a policy in this old and established life insurance organization. An examination of its rates will convince you of its superiority over all others. Remember that life is uncertain and delays dangerous. Insure now while you can and protect your loved ones. There are many branches in Louisville, and applications or any desired information will be furnished by officers and members or by the

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

There are many who favor the field day this year.

Division 1 of Duluth received holy communion in a body last Sunday. The County Board should soon begin arrangements for the summer celebration.

It is now quite probable the our local Ladies' Auxiliary will be well represented in the national convention at Saratoga this summer.

Monday night the members of Division 3 will meet and transact some important business. It is expected that ex-President Welch will be a visitor.

Editor Hattigan continues his good work for the National Hibernian, which has come to be recognized as the best and most ably edited journal of its kind.

The Rev. John Moran, State Chaplain of the order in Ohio, is conducting a mission in New Orleans. He will deliver one sermon especially to the Hibernians.

The suggestions made Tuesday night by President John Mulloy were timely and to the point. If his advice is heeded the membership of Division 1 will soon be doubled.

Twenty candidates received the first and second degrees at the last meeting of Division 4 of Syracuse. At the next meeting a class of fifteen will receive the first two degrees.

President Con Ford wants all members of Division 2 to meet with him next Friday night. Several matters of importance must be acted upon at this meeting, which will be the first of the new quarter.

Division 6 of Minneapolis will have one of the strongest amateur baseball teams in that city this year. A benefit ball has been arranged to raise funds for the purchase of uniforms and equipment for the club.

The Ladies' Auxiliary meets Wednesday night, and all who can should attend. Besides the organization of the choir and encouraging reports from the dramatic club matters of unusual interest will be presented for discussion.

President John Murphy has aroused much good feeling and enthusiasm among the members of Division 4. His rulings are just and every man receives opportunity to express his opinion on all matters brought before the division.

Since 1877 "Division 1 of Hancock, Mich., has paid out in death benefits $100,000, sick benefits $30,000, and charitable donations $5,000. It still has $10,500 in its treasury and is considered the strongest fraternal society in Houghton county.

Division 1 of Bridgeport, Conn., celebrated its thirty-seventh anniversary with an excellent literary and musical programme, and during the evening Capt. Frank Anderson, of the degree team, was presented with a handsome gold mounted sword and a silk American flag.

At a recent meeting of Division 1 of Hancock, Mich., a class of seventy-seven candidates were initiated. Of these seventy-two were insurance members. The initiation was followed by a luncheon, musical and literary entertainment and a beautiful panorama of Irish scenery. This division was the first to be organized in the State of Michigan.

Many are inclined to think that it would not be difficult for our Ladies' Auxiliary to secure a home that would answer for the entire order in Louisville. This is because of their remarkable success during the past year. Miss Mary Sheridan and her associates are making a record to be proud of, having a splendid membership and money galore in the treasury.

FATHER FITZGERALD ILL.

The Rev. Father John J. Fitzgerald, who has been officiating at Holy Cross church during the past two weeks, is confined to his bed by a severe attack of the grip. His many friends throughout the diocese are hoping for his speedy recovery in order that he may carry to a successful conclusion the erection of his new church at Highland Park.

VISITING KNIGHTS WELCOMED.

Thomas Condon, of Toledo, Ohio, and J. R. Voight, of Jeffersonville, Ind., were welcome visitors at the meeting of Louisville Council, K. of C., on Wednesday night. Mr. Condon was formerly District Deputy for Ohio and has held every post of honor the Knights had to offer in that State. He is in great demand as a speaker and is welcomed

FRANCIS' NEW EXCHANGE.

Mike Francis, who has conducted the cafe at Nineteenth and Portland avenue during the past ten years, has recently enlarged and remodeled his establishment. He has also refitted it with the latest improvements and fixtures, so that now he has the most modern and equipped place of the kind in that section of the city. By his accommodating and genial manner and through keeping none but the best goods Mike has built up a splendid trade and made his house a popular headquarters for the men of his neighborhood. He is an active member of Division 3, A. O. H., the Heptastrophs and other fraternal societies, and while it lasted was prominent in the councils of the Irish-American Society. Previous to embarking in business on his own account Mr. Francis was a member of the fire department. He has always on hand a variety of cool beers and all the standard brands of Kentucky whiskeys, wines and cigars, and will welcome old or new friends who choose to call on him.

IRELAND.

Record of the Most Important of the Recent Events Culled From Exchanges.

The death is announced of Kennedy Miller, the well known manager of the Queen's Theater in Dublin.

Joseph Devlin, M. P., visited the Christian Brothers' schools in Belfast and was accorded an enthusiastic welcome by the pupils.

The concluding dates for the Dublin feis have been finally fixed for Saturday and Monday, May 26 and 28. Entries close April 14.

A seizure of poteen has been made at Loughgar, near Clones, at the house of a farmer named Cruden, where a dance was being carried on.

Robert Cunningham has died in Derry at the age of 103. He was a prominent local merchant and retired from business owing to advancing age.

John Woods, a peddler, fell over the cliff at Derryogal, Kilkeel, the fall being a distance of sixty feet. The man lies at present in the local infirmary.

By direction of the landlord William Ryan, of Carrick, near Templemore, and Mrs. Behan, of Loughmore, have been evicted for non-payment of rent.

The Carlow County Council adopted a resolution similar to that at Mayo protesting against the retention of Horace Plunkett as head of the Agricultural and Technical Department.

At the Limerick Corporation Alderman Daly gave notice of motion that no officer or paid official of the corporation attend officially any public function without a special order of the council.

The anniversary of the Fenian rising at Kilmallock was celebrated by a procession through the streets and a visit to the monument erected to commemorate the men of '98 and '67. The local band headed the procession, playing national airs.

The vacancy created in the Parliamentary representatives of North Kilkenny by Joseph Devlin having been elected for that constituency and also for West Belfast, and having been elected to represent the latter, was filled by the return of Michael Meagher, of Tullaroan.

Deep regret is felt by many friends at the death of Donal McCarthy, of Cork, brother of Tim McCarthy, editor of the Ulster Herald at Omagh. Deceased was a member of the staff of the late Cork Herald and was afterwards engaged in commercial life until his health broke down some twelve months ago. He was a strong Nationalist and earnest supporter of the Gaelic movement.

The Mayor of Wexford, addressing the corporation, said that some time ago they had ordered from a Dublin man, who had been recommended by the Gaelic League, about forty name plates in Irish and English characters for the streets of the town. It now appeared that their contractor had handed the contract over to a Birmingham house, who were charging four-pence extra per plate. Alderman Kelly said this was the greatest humbug he ever heard of. John O'Connor said they wanted no Birminghamism or Chamberlainism in Wexford, and he proposed that the Birmingham offer be rejected. A motion to give the contract to the Birmingham firm was lost.

At the Sandangan petty sessions District Inspector Rodwell charged Jeremiah Hickey, James Long, James O'Callaghan and Thomas Wall, all of Bellmount Upper, with unlawful assembly for the purpose of preventing John Dwane from posting notices of execution sale of the lands of Bellmount, disturbing John Dwane and Constable John Walsh, who was protecting Dwane. These cases were before the court last month, when the application of the defending solicitor for an adjournment was granted in view of a probable settlement of the dispute with the landlord. The negotiations in the meantime did not prove successful, and since then there were further summonses issued against the defendants Hickey and Long, and also two others named D. Cunningham and Patrick O'Callaghan, both of Bellmount Upper, for unlawful assembly for the purpose of preventing Cornelius Lucey in serving writs of summons for the recovery of possession of lands.

COMING EVENT.

The Grand International Auxiliary Kentucky Division 230, and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Division 75, will give a dance at the Masonic Temple hall, Fourth and Chestnut streets, on April 25. An enjoyable evening is assured all who attend.
